BY LAWS

of the

BUILDING INSPECTORS ASSOCIATION OF WISCONSIN, SOUTHEASTERN CHAPTER

ARTICLE I. Name

The name of this organization shall be "The Building Inspectors Association of Wisconsin, Southeastern Chapter", herein after referred to as, "the Association" or "the Association's".

ARTICLE II. Objectives

1. To promote higher professional and ethical standards in the field of building inspection.
2. To establish and maintain a good working relationship with the building industry.
3. To promote the revision and adoption of the Wisconsin Uniform Building Code.
4. To promote uniform administration, interpretation and enforcement of the Wisconsin Uniform Building Code.
5. To periodically review new materials, methods of construction, devices and equipment.

ARTICLE III. Membership, Voting, Voting Rules, and Additional Member Benefits

Section 1. Membership Defined

- a. Regular Member. A regular member shall be one duly authorized building inspector or building official, of a municipality he currently serves, having paid into "the Association" the annual membership dues as prescribed under Article VIII of "the Association's" By Laws.
- b. Honorary Member. An honorary member shall be a member who has been a regular or auxiliary member who has reached a minimum of fifty five (55) years of age, and at least 10 years as a member, and who has retired from the active duties as a duly authorized building inspector. An honorary member shall be exempt from annual membership dues with the approval of the Executive Committee. An honorary member shall have the same privileges as a regular member except voting or holding office.
- c. Associate Member. An associate member shall be a membership open to anyone or firm engaged in a related building field and not otherwise eligible for regular or auxiliary membership with all the privileges except voting or holding office.
- d. Auxiliary Member. An auxiliary member shall be a qualified building inspector of a municipality he currently serves, such as an assistant building inspector who would enjoy the same privileges as a regular member, except voting rights, but would be able to hold office or be a member of one of the various working committees. In the event that the auxiliary member holds or is elected to an office of this Association, then the regular member would give up his vote for as long as the auxiliary member holds office.

Section 2. Voting Rules

Regular members or one designated representative of each participating member government present at a regularly scheduled meeting of "the Association" shall be entitled to cast one vote on issues coming before the meeting and in election of officers at the annual meeting. Exceptions to this rule shall be on all issues affecting amendments to the Uniform Building Code as outlined in Section 3 of this Article.

Section 3. Power of Voting

a. Any amendment to the Wisconsin Uniform Building Code shall be by a majority of 2/3 of the votes cast by regular members present.

Amendments to the Wisconsin Uniform Building Code shall become effective upon approval by the voting members of the Wisconsin Building Inspectors Association. Rejection of an amendment to the Wisconsin Uniform Building Code shall not prevent the question from being presented at any future regularly scheduled meeting for a rehearing and vote, except that any amendment of identical intent (as determined by the Executive Committee) and having been rejected twice in any one year period shall not be resubmitted for a period of one year from the date of the second rejection. The criteria shall be intent, and not necessarily phraseology of the amendment so resubmitted.

b. The President may use electronic or other similar means of communication to poll the executive board and legislative committee members on behalf of the membership, on State or Federal legislative issues that, in his/her opinion, require immediate action on behalf of "the Association" due to recently expedited scheduling of legislative proposals. Electronic polling may be taken on such matters by the President when in his/her opinion compliance with the timetables and provisions of sections 2. of this Article, and Article IV section 3, and Article VI sections 2, 3, and 6, cannot in all practicality be achieved.

Section 4. Additional Member Benefits

a. All members shall be eligible for attendance at all meetings, field trips, onsite training events, and other special meetings or events as are offered by "the Association" to all Association members.

b. All members shall be eligible for reimbursement for attendance at League Institutes, conferences, and other authorized activities with prior approval by a majority vote of the General membership. Criteria for eligibility for reimbursement shall be current membership and attendance at a minimum of 3 general meetings of "the Association". General meetings are Association meetings in the months of: January, February, March, June, July, & September. Attendance at regular meetings within the 12 months preceding the date of the event shall also apply for eligibility.

c. The November training event is exempt from the meeting attendance provisions of para b. of this Section.

ARTICLE IV. Officers

Section 1. Personnel

The officers of "the Association" shall be President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and five Trustees. These officers shall constitute the Executive Committee. Regular or auxiliary members shall fill the offices of President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Trustee. The terms of the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be for one year, and the terms of the Trustees shall be for two years, except one Trustee shall be the most immediate Past President who shall serve as Trustee for a one year term only. Thereafter, the two Trustees who have served two years shall be replaced at each annual meeting election.

Section 2. Nominations.

A nomination for each elective office shall be made by the nominating committee. Nominations may be made from the floor at the business session of the annual meeting.

Section 3. Duties.
